BID proposal adopted after businesses vote

BASINGSTOKE traders have voted in favour of creating a Business Improvement District (BID) to try and enhance the town centre.

By Christian Wilson
christian@observergroup.co.uk

A total of 67 per cent of the businesses that voted backed the move – which will see the Top of Town benefit from nearly £2million of private investment.

Local business owners will now have more control in organising events and projects separate from Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council to improve the image of the area and attract more people to the town in the process.

Although the authority will continue to provide funding to improve the town centre alongside the BID, any changes will be bankrolled by a levy charge of up to 1.4 per cent of the value of the 500 or so businesses currently operating in the area.

A steering group made up of Basingstoke shop owners will lead the 'Basingstoke Together' BID from April next year until April 2021, operating out of council-owned offices in Market Chambers.

Steering group chairman Laurence Martin said: "We've got lots of ideas to really improve the town centre for shoppers and other users and shout about what a great place it is.

"As a town centre business holder and Basingstoke resident, I'm really excited that we now have an organisation and funding in place to make these happen."

As well as making commercial improvements, the move will also look to make the town centre look more physically appealing, connect businesses and give residents a voice to suggest any positive changes that they feel should be made.

Successful BIDs are currently in operation in Winchester, Reading and Newbury, with the leader of the Basingstoke Town Centre Programme Cllr Terri Reid pointing out the importance of the vote in helping to make the town a "thriving" destination for visitors.

The borough council's deputy leader said of the news: "It's fantastic that local businesses have voted in support of a Business Improvement District for the area."

Residents help draw up Manydown masterplan

NEARLY 400 residents took part in a series of events to give their thoughts on the masterplan for a 4,000 home development to the west of Basingstoke last week.

A total of 60 community representatives also attended the four-day showpiece in War Memorial Park to help design the northern part of Manydown.

The housing development is a key part of Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council's draft local plan to build 850 homes every year until 2029, which is currently under public examination.

A range of possible project

By Christian Wilsonchristian@observergroup.co.uk designs, ideas and concerns were discussed during workshops at the 'Shaping Manydown: The Place and its Community' event on Thursday and Friday.

Planners, architects and urban designers then drew up plans based on the suggestions in 'real time' before unveiling the designs to residents across the weekend.

The borough council's design team will now take away all of the comments made during the exhibitions to help shape the way Manydown will look and feel to residents from the surrounding area.

Council member leading on Manydown, John Izett, said: "The level of public interest shown in this community event was brilliant and shows how much local residents care and want to contribute to the future of Manydown."

"It was great to see so many people taking the time not only to come along but to stay and talk over their thoughts, concerns and ideas in detail."

The community outreach event was the first opportunity for locals to give feedback on the plans for Manydown, ahead of a full public consultation programme which will take place at the end of February.

Cllr Izett added: "In talking to some of those who attended, I was left in no doubt that they want the Manydown development to be done very well and also recognise the need we have as a borough to provide new homes for today's residents and future generations."

To view the ideas proposed during the events and to submit feedback, visit manydownbasingstoke.co.uk.

BID plans voted through, despite some concerns being raised

• From front page

Cllr Reid continued: "It's vital for town centres to gain a competitive edge, and bringing all the businesses in the area together to help improve what is offered to the people that live and work in Basingstoke can really help to achieve this."

"The council is committed to working with local businesses to ensure that Basingstoke town centre is a thriving retail and leisure destination and we look forward to working with the Basingstoke Together BID on this."

In total, around 37 per cent of businesses took part in the ballot.

But Eastrop councillor Gavin

James expressed concern on the move, claiming that the BID "hadn't caught the imagination" of residents.

He said: "It's a difficult one because the BID could be a good thing as long as it's used in the right way."

"The low turnout is not a surprise to me because it hasn't really caught the imagination of a large number of people."

"The town centre is more than just traders, and it concerns me that some businesses are now going to be forced to pay this levy when it has no benefit to them."

"For now though, we should just see how the BID goes and review it further down the line."

News Bites*Christmas lights

BASINGSTOKE: Temporarily renamed shopping centre Festive Place launched its Christmas countdown on Friday with its traditional lights switch on.

Neighbours star Mark Little turned on the Christmas lights alongside Santa during the event in Festival Square, which attracted hundreds of people.

There were also performances from The Military Wives Choir and a Jersey Boys tribute act during the festive show, with a 10-minute fireworks and laser display closing the evening.

Student support

BASINGSTOKE: Pupils from The Costello School have handed over £214 towards the build of a cancer treatment centre in the Basingstoke area.

The funds were raised from a prize giving evening at the school in Crossborough Hill for the Ark Cancer Centre Charity, who are looking to raise £5million towards building the centre by the end of 2018.

The school's headteacher Leigh Adams said: "The good news is this centre will clearly have a beneficial impact on the lives of cancer patients and their loved ones in the local community, and that is a positive development."

Farage: 'Paris will not be one-off'

NIGEL Farage has accused British Muslims of having "a split of loyalties" in his first public address since last week's Paris terror attacks.

Speaking at The Anvil in Basingstoke on Monday night, the Ukip party leader warned that the tragic events in the French capital would "not be an isolated and one-off attack".

Suicide bombers representing terrorist group Islamic State, or ISIS, murdered at least 129 civilians during a series of shocking attacks on a number of venues on Friday night that have shook the world.

And Mr Farage has now called on more to be done to counteract the "considerable alienation of young Muslims taking place" in the UK to avoid a similar tragedy taking place in Britain.

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

He said: "This incident has filled me with horror and revulsion, but this will not be an isolated and one-off attack."

"The thing that makes me angry is frankly the fact that it was utterly and entirely predictable - with mass immigration and multi-cultural division being at fault."

He continued: "There is a problem with some of the Muslim community in this country caused by a considerable alienation of young Muslims."

"This means there is now a tremendous conflict and split of loyalties among this community."

ISIS's stranglehold over Syria and neighbouring countries in the Middle East has led to around four million people fleeing the war-torn areas into Europe, with the terror group claiming to have smuggled half a million terrorists into the continent amongst genuine refugees.

And while he acknowledged that this number may be wide of the mark, Mr Farage claimed that it would be "total madness" to continue to let refugees into the EU at the current rate.

He added: "Theresa May has said that ISIS has nothing to do with Islam, but, I'm sorry, every single one of these killers did what they were doing believing they were doing it in the name of Islam."

"ISIS has said it will use the Syrian refugee crisis to fill Europe with half a million Jihadists, but even if only 500 get through that's still too many - look what they did in Paris with eight."

"I'm all for helping victims of war, but however tough it is, it would be total madness to throw the doors open and let more terrorists into the EU, and ultimately Britain."

• Ukip leader Nigel Farage admitted the Paris attacks filled him with "horror and revulsion"

• Around 1,000 residents packed into The Anvil to watch Mr Farage's address

Horse injured during farm burglary

A HORSE suffered severe burns following a suspected arson attack and burglary at a Burghclere farm in the early hours of last Wednesday.

Thieves also stole nine saddles and bridles valued in total at around £12,000 after breaking into a tack store in a stable block at the farm at Newton Common.

Offenders then set fire to a horse box truck before fleeing the scene, with the fire spreading to a nearby stable, causing significant damage in the process.

The incident took place between 2.30am and 3.30am, with the occupants being woken by the sound of the fire to rescue the horses before they came to any more harm.

Detective Constable Alex Hall said: "This type of offence is extremely rare."

"Although it is not clear why the horse truck was set on fire it does not appear it was the offenders' intention to cause injury to the horses."

"Nevertheless I would urge horse owners to be vigilant and to report any suspicious activity."

Petition launched over "devastating" cutbacks

BASINGSTOKE'S Labour group has started an online petition opposing cuts to children's centres by Hampshire County Council.

As previously reported in the Observer, the authority approved £98million of cuts to care services across the county at a meeting last month.

The savings include plans to slash Hampshire's 51 children's centres to between eight and 15 - putting Basingstoke and Deane's 11 facilities at risk of closure.

And after seeing a motion challenge-

• Cllr Paul Harvey has started an online petition opposing the cuts

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

ing the county council's decision narrowly voted out by the borough council, Labour group leader Cllr Paul Harvey has urged residents to "send a clear message" of opposition.

He said: "The document that [the council] has produced so far says that they intend to consult on a reduction in children's centres to a maximum of 15 across the county."

"This would be a real concern for thousands of people in Basingstoke - so I have started this petition in order to show them just precisely how valued our children's centres are."

The councillor for Norden added: "We want to send a clear message that we do not support these cuts, which would have a devastating impact on local children and families."

"It is clear from the many comments that residents have left me that there is a strong desire within the community to maintain and improve our children's centres, not to cut them."

Around 100 Basingstoke and Deane residents have signed the petition so far.

Gemma Grice from Chineham posted: "These centres have been at the heart of my first 11 weeks as a mother."

"They have offered friendship and guidance and without them who knows how different my experience may have been."

Gemma Moseley from Bramley added: "The children's centres are a brilliant place to meet other parents and would be greatly missed."

The service cuts are part of the county council's strategy to make £220m of savings by 2020, and are subject to public consultation.

Executive lead member for children's services Cllr Keith Mans said: "We are facing difficult financial circumstances, as well as the need to continually improve, so we must make sure the resources that we have are used to the very best effect."

"The proposals for the council's budget were part of a larger reorganisation of how we best assist those families of greatest need in the county."

To sign the petition, go to change.org/p/hampshire-county-council-keep-basingstoke-s-children-centres/c.

Panto star tours the town

CHILDREN'S television presenter Mark Rhodes visited a string of Basingstoke primary schools last week ahead of his panto appearance in town next month.

Famous for being part of CBBC double-act Sam and Mark, the 34-year-old will play the lead role in Jack and the Beanstalk, being performed at The Anvil from December 10 to January 3.

Outstanding care

HAMPSHIRE: An independent report into Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust (HHFT) has scored the care received as 'outstanding'.

The Chief Inspector of Hospitals published the report following an inspection carried out in July by a team of 55 doctors, nurses and senior NHS managers from the Care Quality Commission.

HHFT chief executive Mary Edwards said: "This report recognises the amazing care and professionalism that all of our staff, clinical and non-clinical, demonstrate day-in and day-out despite the recognised pressure on our services."

"I am very proud of all of our hard-working and caring staff and this is a tremendous vote of confidence."

Alcohol advice

HAMPSHIRE: The county council is marking Alcohol Awareness Week this week by encouraging people to check how much they drink by using the NHS Change 4 Life online drinks checker.

Hampshire residents will be able to pick up tips on how to cut down consumption by searching online for 'Hampshire Drink-less', while they can also see how many units they are consuming by searching 'Don't let Drinks Sneak up on You'.

Council member for health and public health Cllr Patricia Stallard said: "Many people do not realise how much they are drinking, especially when at home, but by taking some simple steps it is possible to moderate your drinking."

Council gives support to sporting stars

ATHLETES from across the borough are set to benefit from a new Sports Grant Aid scheme funded by Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council.

The funding can be used to help with travelling, coach expenses and competition fees – with applicants needing to be of county standard and aged between 10 and 24.

People with scholarships will also be considered for the funding, which is administered by Basingstoke Sports Council.

Nominations for the Basingstoke and Deane Sport Awards, which celebrates achievements in local sport, can also now be sent in, with a deadline for applicants on Saturday, December 5.

Council cabinet member for partnerships, Cllr Cathy Osselt, said: "We have a wealth of sporting talent in the borough and it is important to support these athletes in their quest for regional, national and international success.

"This is a fantastic opportunity for our sports stars to help fund their journey to gold medal success through the Sports Grant Aid scheme, while also acknowledging the hard work and dedication of our athletes, coaches and volunteers through the sports awards."

For more information on the awards, visit basingstoke.gov.uk/sportsawards.

Superstore finally opens its doors

THE 68-week wait for the £7million John Lewis at Home and Waitrose superstore in Basing View is over.

Hundreds of customers queued up outside the 73,000 sq ft for more than an hour before doors opened for the first time on Thursday morning.

A total of 369 new jobs have been created in the area as a result of the build – which has become the largest partnership store in the country.

Work began on the development way back in July 2014, with new John Lewis at Home branch manager Ali Gilbert, who was joined in cutting the ribbon by Waitrose Basingstoke manager Jamie Rodgers, calling the opening a "magical moment".

She said: "Partners from both John Lewis and Waitrose have worked incredibly hard to get us to this stage and I'm very proud of everyone that has been involved.

"Today marks a very exciting time for us and it was a truly magical moment welcoming our first customers through the doors.

"We have created a fantastic place for people to work and shop, and I look forward to meeting more customers in the coming months."

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

Mr Rodgers added: "It's an honour to be included in the wider regeneration of Basingstoke and we're incredibly excited to play a part in the town's future.

"This shop provides Basingstoke with a terrific new retail offer."

A café, bakery and wine bar are included in addition to the John Lewis Partnership's range of products, while the retailer has also become the first store nationwide to contain a nursery advice section for parents.

The development is a key part of Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council's £200m regeneration of Basing View, with cabinet member for finance and resources John Izett calling the build a "significant step forward".

Cllr Izett added: "We are delighted to welcome them to Basing View.

"We know the company has made the right decision in choosing Basingstoke as the destination to open its largest combined store and are delighted it has resulted in 369 new jobs."

Police chief constable camera idea praised

PLANS to trial a new interviewing technique involving the use of body cameras by officers at crime scenes has been backed by Hampshire Police Federation's chairman.

As previously reported in the Observer, Hampshire Constabulary became the first force in the country to make Body-Worn Video (BWV) cameras standard issue for all officers in 2013.

And the county's Chief Constable Andy Marsh has now begun discussions with the Home Office to pilot a scheme to use the technology to interview people suspected of low-level offences at the scene of a crime.

While he acknowledged that some safeguards would have to be put in place for the protocol to work, Police Federation chairman John Apter labelled the practice as "the future of policing".

He said: "I think it's very innovative and long overdue."

"I've been a police officer for 23 years, and it's embarrassing that policing has been left behind when it comes to technology."

"This is the future of policing, and I've seen what BWV cameras can do to help officers that have been assaulted."

Chief Constable Marsh, who is the national policing lead for the technology, said: "We are working incredibly hard to be a world leader in digital policing, but it is crucial that we make sure that any new technology delivers real benefits for the public.

"As well as introducing more of these cameras, we need to continue to build public trust in this technology."

"This is crucial if we are to achieve the vision of a digitalised criminal justice system which makes full use of Body-Worn Video evidence."

Funding from the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner (OPCC) will take the number of BWV cameras across the whole of the county from 500 to 2,800 over the next year.

But with the Police and Criminal Evidence Act currently standing in the way of cameras being used for interviews, Mr Apter has called for changes to the "old fashioned" law.

He added: "We need the criminal justice system and Home Office to help us make body-worn cameras even more a part of the process."

"The possibilities are endless with this technology, and the only thing stopping us is old fashioned rules and regulations."

"I really do think this is an excellent idea and would help bring the world of policing into the court room."

Mayor hosts awards evening

• The winners were presented with their awards by Basingstoke and Deane mayor Cllr Anne Court (centre)

Mayor of Basingstoke and Deane Cllr Anne Court hosted the ceremony at the Council Chambers in London Road, as part of an initiative from education charity Basingstoke Consortium.

Cllr Court said: "I am really pleased to have hosted this event and would like to thank Basingstoke Consortium for organising this."

"Well done to the winners who are all exceptional role models in their fields."

Basingstoke Consortium CEO Sue Riley added: "The Awards were created to showcase the incredible talent of the hundreds of individuals who volunteer or work with us every year to help young people learn more about the world of work."

UK WATER SOFTENERS

Established 20 years

Hard water is something we are all used to in Hampshire, although most of us have got used to putting up with it, many do not realise that you can do something about it. It furs up our heating systems, causing breakdowns, makes it more expensive to heat our homes and damages our appliances. The other problem with limescale is the constant cleaning of showerheads, shower screens, stainless steel sinks, the whole house can suffer where hard water is concerned. Limescale aggravates skin problems such as eczema and psoriasis. With a water softener no limescale will get into the house, which means you will have to do less cleaning, stop buying limescale related products, cut washing powder use by up to 75% and have less chance of large bills for potential future problems with your heating system and appliance breakdowns. If you were to purchase an ordinary softener you would have quite a large machine, which requires you to set clocks and lug around a 25kg bag of salt. The TwinTec S3 is different. It is small, requires no electricity and uses block salt (like two house bricks) instead of heavy 25kg bags. Harvey Softeners has been manufacturing softeners in this area for more than 35 years. Kevin Goody (UK Water Softeners) is one of Harveys top TwinTec dealers and was voted number two in the country last year.

Why is Kevin so successful?

He puts it down to extensive marketing and a great plumber with a wealth of experience having worked for the manufacturers for the last four years, good customer satisfaction and recommendations. Kevin has installed 4800 water softeners in homes in this area over the last twenty years and arranges everything from initial survey to installation. Kevin Goody also welcomes trade enquiries. We also service & repair Kinetico Water Softeners.

County council accused of 'failing Basingstoke'

AN EASTROP councillor has slammed the county council's role in failing to repair broken paving in Basingstoke's town centre.

The borough council is currently in the third year of its Town Centre Programme to rejuvenate the Top of Town in the face of cuts to funding.

Town traders also voted in favour of forming a Business Improvement District (BID) on Friday to improve the appearance of the area and attract more visitors to Basingstoke.

But after discovering numerous "dangerous paving" in the town centre, Liberal Democrat councillor Stuart Parker has called on Hampshire County Council to do more to "get the basics right".

"Plans to make Top of Town more attractive to visitors and shoppers are being undermined by the state of the pedestrian area," said Cllr Parker.

"I have repeatedly reported areas in need of repair and yet months pass and nothing is done."

"I am not talking about single paving slabs in need of replacement, but whole areas of loose and dangerous paving."

"The council is failing Basingstoke and need to take action now - there are over 200 businesses in Top of Town, all paying business rates, and they deserve a council that can get the basics right."

Cllr Parker singled out damage to the roadside in London Street, Market Square, Castons Walk, Winton Square and the Eastrop roundabout underpass for criticism after taking to the streets to inspect the roads.

And the councillor for Eastrop ward has accused the county council of "fobbing off" people trying to report problems.

He added: "When residents contact them to report an issue in need of attention, all they get is standard acknowledgement, with no option to reply."

"Even councillors are just fobbed off with a standard email and months pass before they receive a proper detailed reply relevant to the issues they have raised."

"I believe the system is designed to deter people from contacting the county."

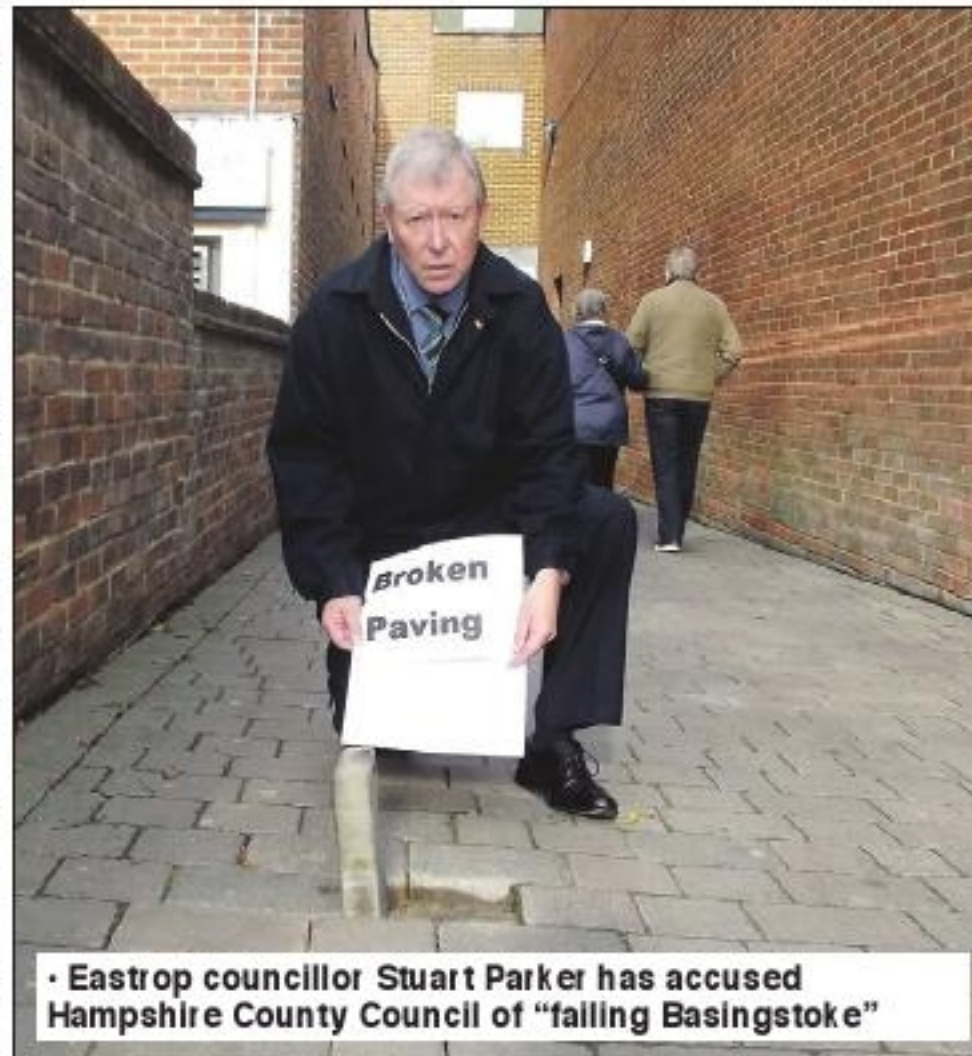

Hampshire County Council member for economy, transport and environment Cllr Sean Woodward said: "Hampshire County Council has invested in a significant scheme to improve the areas at the Top of Town around Market Place to make the area more attractive for visitors and shoppers, therefore helping the local economy.

"Additionally, the local highways officers have already arranged to meet with Cllr

Parker to discuss issues in other areas, and investigate what might be done to improve these.

"It is important that we use the resources we have as effectively as possible, which is why we take an asset management approach to highways maintenance in Hampshire."

Basingstoke employment on the up

NEW figures have revealed Basingstoke's unemployment rate has dropped by four per cent in the last month.

In total 667 people from the town claimed Jobseeker's Allowance throughout October in a drop of 27 from September.

The local findings followed the national employment rate, which hit a record high of 73.7 per cent - while the 130 claimants aged between 18 and 24 was 10 lower than the previous month.

Released by the Office for National Statistics (ONS), the figures also indicated a 14 per cent drop in the total amount of unemployed people in Basingstoke compared to this time last year.

And with the rate dropping by 63 per cent since 2010, Basingstoke's Job Centre Plus have revealed that they are "confident" in continuing to reduce the claimant count in the area.

Centre manager Lesley Anstis said: "I'm pleased that the claimant count in Basingstoke is decreasing month on month."

"We're doing lots of good work with local employers such as Game, Sainsbury's, John Lewis at home and Waitrose to support them with their recruitment."

She added: "We are confident that all of this will help continue to reduce the claimant count in Basingstoke."

£11.2m roundabout is delayed until March

BASINGSTOKE MP Maria Miller has labelled further delays to the completion of work to the Black Dam roundabout as "completely unacceptable".

The £11.2million revamp to convert the M3 Junction 6 intersection into a 'hamburger roundabout' was due to be completed by the end of March.

But Highways England have now confirmed that the major roadworks to create four lanes of traffic through the centre of the roundabout will not now be finished until March next year.

With Black Dam becoming

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

somewhat of a no-go spot for motorists since improvements began in September 2014 however, Mrs Miller has warned of further "chaos for residents".

She said: "In the original plans, these roadworks were due to be completed before the summer, but poor mapping of utilities has caused havoc from the start.

"It is completely unacceptable, and this delay is causing chaos for residents and local businesses."

A Highways England statement said: "We appreciate that work will now be completed significantly later than planned, and we are sorry for the inconvenience it will cause.

"Progress on the improvements has been held up by significant and complex issues with utility services that run beneath the roundabout."

As previously reported in the Observer, Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council is also planning £24million worth of improvements to nine more major roundabouts in the area in the next four years.

Mrs Miller added: "Lessons need to be learnt from the Black Dam experience to rebuild the trust with local businesses and residents."

Council leader Clive Sanders said: "We are obviously disappointed to be told at this late stage that there is a delay and clearly there are real lessons to be learnt."

He added: "We cannot have a situation in the future where utilities and service providers have insufficient information on their own networks as that then holds up major work on this scale."

Schools wins breakfast club award

• Children from South View Junior School

A PRIMARY school in Basingstoke has won a prestigious national award worth £1,500 for its Breakfast Club.

South View Junior School in Shooters Way picked up the 'Extra Learning' accolade as part of the Kellogg's Breakfast Club Awards on Monday, November 9.

The school bagged the gong after impressing judges with its early-morning club, which opens at 8am and allows children to eat breakfast while getting individual reading help.

Headteacher Sheila Pape said: "We're delighted to win this award.

"It shows that the hard work put in has paid off.

"Socialising at the Breakfast Club has helped the children with their confidence, self-worth and pride, and it means they get to read and write in a calm, helpful environment."

She continued: "The extra reading provision has even led to an improvement in our SATs results for reading."

Pupils and teachers have been invited to a special awards ceremony at the Houses of Parliament on Tuesday, December 8 to receive the award.

Landlord aid

BASINGSTOKE AND DEANE: Landlords of private homes from across the borough are being invited to attend a free seminar next Wednesday.

Presentations offering relevant information, help and advice will be on show at the event at the council's civic offices in London Road, which will run from 10am to midday.

The seminar will also give landlords the chance to find out more about new legislation brought in by the government, including new rules on fire alarms, carbon monoxide and ending a tenancy.

Cabinet member for housing and regeneration, Cllr Terri Reid, said: "This is a great opportunity for private landlords in the borough to get together and receive up-to-date help and support."

Shop burglary

HARTLEY WINTNEY: An antiques shop in Hartley Wintney suffered extensive roof damage following a burglary earlier this month.

Police were called to Hartley Antiques in the High Street at around 9.30pm on Saturday, November 7 after the intruder alarm was activated.

Those involved then fled the premises without taking anything.

Detective Constable Hamish Walker said: "Luckily nothing has been stolen in this instance, however this incident has caused major disruption to a local business."

Anyone with any information should contact police on 101, quoting 44150388062.

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Advanced Digital Imaging

OCT will give accurate diagnosis:

- AMD
- Diabetic Maculopathy
- Macular Hole
- Epiretinal Membrane
- Early detection of Glaucoma

*It is estimated that approximately 2% of people over the age of 40 will have Glaucoma.

*Statistics obtained from The International Glaucoma Association.

What is an OCT scan?

This practice has invested in the very latest OCT scanning technology.

An Optical Coherence Tomography (OCT) scan is a unique test which uses near-infrared light reflected off the retina to produce a high resolution 3-Dimensional scan of the retina and associated structures.

It is particularly useful in the assessment of patients with AMD, Diabetic Maculopathy, early detection of Glaucoma and the management of these diseases. The test is non invasive, quick and entirely painless.

Am I at risk of Glaucoma?

Are you over 40?
Do you have a family history of Glaucoma?
Are you short sighted?
Do you have diabetes?
Are you of African-Caribbean origin?

If the answer is yes to any of these questions, then you are at an increased risk and should definitely have your eyes tested regularly.*

Why has this practice invested in OCT?

We believe this advanced imagery allows us to detect and monitor early stages of diseases and as this examination is not available under the NHS, we make an additional charge for this scan. Please ask for further details.

This assessment of your eyes using OCT Technology will give us the most accurate diagnosis possible and help us give you the best advice to protect your sight and the health of your eyes.

Your eyes deserve the benefits of cutting edge technology available at this practice.

Reliving the Stones in 'Stoke

BASINGSTOKE will be able to relive the glory days of the 1960s and 1970s when The Rolling Stones tribute band The Counterfeit Stones arrive at The Anvil on Thursday, November 26.

Described as a 'mockumentary' by band member Steve Elson, who portrays 'Nick Jagger', the group will play a mix of songs from the Stones' 50-year back catalogue.

"The show takes you through five decades with songs and costumes to match," Steve told the Observer.

"The costume and instrument changes are covered by a series of hilarious film clips which are spoofs of real Stones' events and every song is a faithful rendition of the records, maintaining the tempos, keys and routines of the originals.

"The Counterfeit Stones' show is a live 'mockumentary' depicting a potted history of The Rolling Stones."

Following their formation back in 1991, the tribute band have enjoyed monumental success, with them performing alongside mainstream musicians and groups such as Joe Cocker, Blur and ZZ Top.

Yet amazingly, it was Steve's older brother who somewhat accidentally started off his love for the rock band, and it was from that moment Steve decided that he wanted to be a full-time musician.

"The Rolling Stones have been the biggest influence throughout my whole life," he said.

Steve continued: "When my older brother brought their debut album home in 1963 he unwittingly charted my destiny.

"Even before The Counterfeit Stones started, they influenced my other career as a producer and song writer and they were also the main ingredient for successful dating as a teenager.

"My early girlfriends were easy prey to the Jagger hips and lips!"

And there is one moment that Steve cites as his main highlight in his extensive career, describing it as 'recreating a bit of history'.

"The highlight of my career was playing in Hyde Park to 40,000 people," the musician revealed.

"It was one of the BBC Proms concert seasons and we were on the bill with Barry Manilow.

"The Stones of course had their famous Hyde Park concert back in 1969, and I really felt we were recreating a bit of history."

Next Thursday's gig starts at 7.45pm and tickets cost £21.50.

Chris Baker

COVER musician Chris Baker will be returning to The Bolton Arms in Old Basing this Saturday, November 21.

The performer will sing songs that range a number of genres which include swing, ska, rock, pop, opera, West End music and rap.

This is a free gig that will start at 8.30pm.

Nish Kumar

COMEDIAN Nish Kumar will be at the Phoenix Theatre and Arts Centre in Bordon on Friday, November 27.

The funnyman, who is best known for presenting the BBC Radio 4 Extra show 'Newsjack' arrives at the Station Road venue with his brand new show, 'Long Word, Long Word'.

The gig starts at 8pm and tickets cost £10.

Frankly Sinatra

A TRIBUTE to one of the most successful musicians of all time will be at The Anvil this Saturday, November 21.

'Frankly Sinatra' will see musician Stephen Triffitt emulate the jazz singer at the Churchill Way venue, performing well-known Sinatra songs such as 'Fly Me to the Moon' and 'My Way'.

It starts at 7.45pm.

Ending 2015 with a bang

WOKING-based covers group Forty45 perform their last gig of the year at the Falkners Arms pub in Fleet on Saturday, November 28.

Consisting of lead singer and keyboard player Roly Baldwin, guitarist Scott Perham, bassist Tim Plumb and Rob Smyth on the drums, the foursome arrive at the Falkners Close pub with a huge arsenal of well-known songs to perform.

"We'll be playing famous tracks from the 1950s through to the present day with an emphasis on upbeat numbers and a lively performance," Roly revealed to the Observer.

"From The Rolling Stones classics to the latest Mark Ronson track, we aim to reproduce the music accurately with the occasional F45 tweak.

"And we hope the audience will enjoy the evening at least as much as we do."

Despite gigging in various parts of the UK, the band are not full-time musicians.

Yet this doesn't stop the band performing on a regular basis, and since their formation back in 2009, Forty45 have established themselves as a very successful covers group who consistently perform at parties, pubs and weddings.

Due to the group's increasing popularity, the five friends are already scheduled to do 11 gigs next year.

By James Richings

"It's honestly a privilege to perform to an audience that's enjoying itself and we get a real buzz from being onstage and giving it our all," Roly said.

"We choose our set so that every song is well-known and everyone can enjoy themselves, so we engage with the audience a lot.

"So don't expect to be left alone to enjoy a quiet pint!"

He added: "Music creates some of the best moments in life and it is always worth seeking out new bands to experience and enjoy."

This is a free gig that starts at 9pm.

Kia reveals four new models

• A Kia PacWest Adventure Sorento

Trail'ster

THE Trail'ster is for those venturing on snowy, muddy or wet road trips.

Based on the popular Kia Soul, the turbocharged Trail'ster comes with a roll-top canvas roof, and armoured aluminium skid plates.

KMA's vice resident of marketing communications, Tim Chaney, said: "This year's show gave us the opportunity to embrace the spirit of adventure."

Ballast Point Sedona

BACK by popular demand is the bar/car, the Ballast Point Sedona.

It has a flip-top roof and fold-down front bar for its main purpose, to serve drinks.

It comes with two beer taps, a drinks cooling box with 120-feet of copper beer-cooling coils and up to four half-barrel of Ballast Point's finest.

The front passenger seat has been removed for kegs and supplies.

A1A Optima

THE A1A Optima takes inspiration from Florida.

Its sliced top and shortened wind-screen give it a sporty look, and reinforced steel tubes are hidden within the body so the car retains its rigid structure.

The powerful 245bhp turbo-charged four-cylinder engine is combined with a high-performance exhaust whilst its sport suspension lowers the ride height.

THE Photo Safari Sedona exterior is painted with different shades of reds and browns, taking inspiration from autumn season in the north-east of the USA, a popular spot for photographers.

The car has converted the standard eight-passenger model to a two-passenger vehicle with room for a professional editing studio.

Forte Koup Mud Bogger

TO accommodate the Koup Mud Bogger's massive wheel and tyre combo, the fenders and side skirts have been modified.

It is fitted with a hand-built, white-powder-coated brush guard and a rigid LED light bar so it can be used in tough terrain, day or night.

It is styled to serve a love for getting 'dirty on four wheels'.

PacWest Adventure Sorento

THE PacWest Adventure Sorento is inspired by the Pacific Northwest forests, equipped with twin LED low-profile light bars on the front bumper and roof rack.

The 'go-anywhere' car is six inches higher than a standard Sorento.

And it also has an eight-inch 'Alpine Mobile Media' entertainment system.

KIA Motors America unveiled four customised vehicles at this the Specialty Equipment Market Association (SEMA) show this month.

The SEMA was launched in 1963 by car enthusiasts who wanted to create a car parts market for car fanatics.

The first SEMA show was held four years later in 1967, allowing over 6,000 car companies worldwide to provide ways of developing newly introduced parts, tools and components whilst showing various concept cars.

At this year's show in Las Vegas from November 3 to November 6, Kia Motors America revealed its new A1A Optima, PacWest Adventure Sorento, Photo Safari Sedona, Trail'ster, Forte Koup Mud Bogger, and brought back last year's hit the Ballast Point Sedona.

Driver and Vehicle
Licensing Agency

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.
That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

Another home win for buzzing Bison

BASINGSTOKE Bison dismantled Bracknell Bees on Saturday to cap a perfect 10 consecutive wins on home ice.

An Alan Lack hat-trick led the Herd to a comprehensive 10-2 win that briefly saw Doug Sheppard's side climb to the top of the English Premier League (EPL).

The Stampede were knocked off their perch in surprising fashion just 24 hours later however, as the league's whipping boys the Hull Pirates beat them 3-2 to claim their first victory of the season.

Bison led twice during Sunday's clash before conceding two goals in the final four minutes to go home empty handed and slip behind Peterborough Phantoms in the table.

The Herd never looked like getting stung during the Bees' visit to the Basingstoke Arena though, after overcoming a rocky start that saw Scott Spearing capitalise on a Tomas Hladovsky mistake to cancel out Lack's first strike at 4:06.

Star forward Tomas Karpov quickly restored parity with a superb solo goal on the 10-minute mark as Bison exploded into life in the second half of the opening period.

Shaun Thompson then made the most of a powerplay to fire home his shot from a tight angle on 13:35.

And Ryan Watt then pounced following some poor Bracknell defending to make it 4-1 with 2:46 of the period to play.

There was no let up from the home side after the buzzer either as Ciaran Long and then captain Aaron Connolly each fired the puck past Alex Mettam before the game had reached the half hour mark.

After such a frenetic start, there was then a bit of lull in play before the 43rd minute when Lack and Joe Greener both scored.

Jan Bendik pulled one back for Bracknell on 50:13, but Thompson added a ninth for Bison and Lack sent the home fans home happy by grabbing his third with a simple finish.

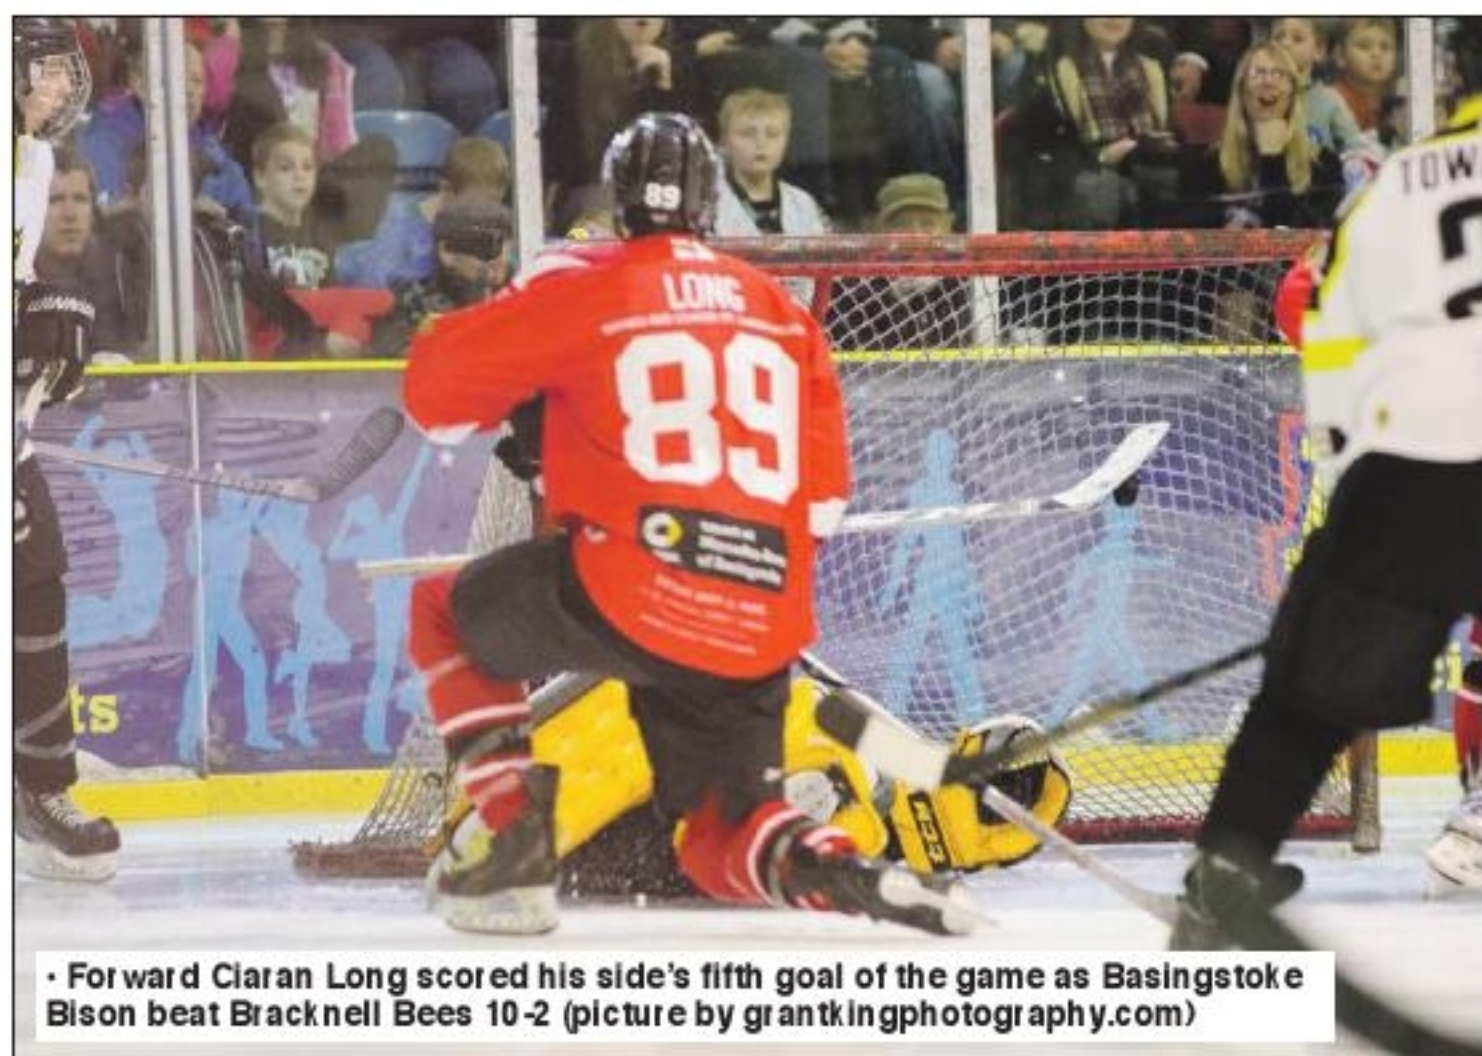

Basingstoke managed to carry their momentum on to the following night's tie at the home of the Pirates, as Karpov combined well with Ryan Watt to find the net after 11:27 to make it 1-0.

And in a tight game, the score stayed that way until two minutes into the third period, when Hull made the most of a one-man advantage to level through Pasi Salonen.

Connolly looked to have handed his side the win with eight minutes left after combining with Thompson to beat goaltender Martins Raitums.

But Bison inexplicably still managed to lose the tie as two goals from Finland forward Tommi Laine on 56:28 and 58:47 made it 3-2.

Basingstoke are only in action once this weekend, when they welcome their title rivals Milton Keynes Lightning to Planet Ice on Saturday evening in a crucial encounter.

Red-hot Rose ready for Dubai

JUSTIN Rose's Race to Dubai dream is still alive after the North Hampshire golfer tied seventh place at the BMW Masters in Shanghai.

The 35-year-old looked to stand no chance of catching leaders Rory McIlroy and Danny Willett for the coveted crown this time last month - before his victory at the UBS Hong Kong Open.

But after another solid display in China last week, in-form Rose is now just 651,000 points behind McIlroy, with 1,333,330 on offer to the winner of today's DP World Tour Championship in Dubai.

With the Northern Irishman sitting out the competition at Lake Malaren Golf Club, the world number six started off well on Thursday - hitting birdies at 3, 4, 6, 7, 10 and 14 on his way to a five-under-par opening round score of 67.

The Englishman found things a bit trickier on the second day however, with bogies at 3, 6, 9 and 12 seeing him tumble down the leaderboard.

Rose did well to recover from this setback to match his opening round score on day three to hand him a tie for 13th spot, following birdies at 5, 8, 10, 11, 13 and 15.

And another score of 67 (-5) on Sunday helped cement the 2013 US Open Winner's position in seventh, following birdies at 3, 6, 10, 13, 15 and 18, with his final score of -15 seeing him finish eight shots ahead of 28th placed Willett.

Speaking to europeantour.com, Rose said: "Tied seventh is obviously a decent week and no one ahead of me on the Race to Dubai played better than me, so I caught up a bit of ground on Rory and Danny."

"It's going to be very tight going into Dubai, and I think I'm going to have to win next week."

"I always knew I was going to have to win one of these two weeks, so hopefully I'm deferring and can finish it off on the grand stage in Dubai."

• North Hampshire's Justin Rose claimed a share of seventh place at the BMW Masters in Shanghai

Sport Bites

Trophy draw

FOOTBALL: Basingstoke Town have been drawn to face National League South rivals Havant and Waterlooville away from home in the third qualifying round of the FA Trophy.

The tie will take place next Saturday, as Jason Bristow's side look to replicate their performance in last season's competition, which saw them beat Whitehawk at the same stage.

GB call-up

HOCKEY: Odham hockey star Alex Danson has been selected to represent Great Britain's women's team for next month's World League Final in Argentina.

The 30-year-old striker will go into the competition in Rosario on Saturday, December 5 in great form, having been named player of the tournament as England won gold at the EuroHockey Championships in August.

Great Britain have been drawn in Pool B and will face hosts Argentina, China and Australia in the opening matches.

Seven losses

RUGBY: Basingstoke RFC's miserable start to the London 2 South West season continued on Saturday as they were emphatically beaten 34-0 by Hampshire rivals Portsmouth.

The defeat was the second game in a row that 'Stoke failed to register a single point on the board, following the previous week's 53-0 home demolition to Cobham.

Basingstoke's seventh defeat from seven means that they are still routed to the bottom of the table on -5 points following their back-to-back relegations of the past two years.

Gareth Hatherley-Hurford's side are next in action this Saturday, when they will welcome Andover to Down Grange.

County cup win

FOOTBALL: Basingstoke Town Ladies returned to winning ways on Sunday to beat Alton United 2-0 in the Hampshire FA Women's Cup.

Ayala Truelove and substitute Katie Randell both found the net for 'Stoke as they bounced back from their first dropped points in the league this season the week before.

Basingstoke return to action in the Southern Region Women's Football League (SRWFL) Premier Division when they travel to face Newbury Ladies FC on Sunday afternoon.

DRAGONS DOWNED BY DOUBLE DEFEAT

BASINGSTOKE Town shipped seven goals as they slumped to two more damaging defeats in the space of three days in the National League South this week.

The Dragons now sit six points from safety at the bottom of the league after being beaten 2-0 on the road by in-form Truro City on Tuesday night.

That loss came just days after a second-half collapse at Concord Rangers saw Jason Bristow's side dismantled 5-0 in what was their heaviest loss of the campaign.

Basingstoke went into Saturday's clash at Thames Road on the back of a narrow loss to League Two side Cambridge United in the FA Cup a week earlier, following a battling performance.

But barring a long-range drive from on-loan Woking striker Guiseppe Sole on his debut early on, the visitors struggled to create much in a miserable encounter, with Lewis Taaffe's

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

blocked effort on 37 minutes representing the closest the hosts came to breaking the deadlock themselves in a quiet first half.

Concord didn't have to wait long to open the scoring however, as just three minutes after the break Steve Cawley fired home from the spot after Taaffe was brought down in the area.

And straight from the kick off it was 2-0 as Cawley latched onto a Joe Gardner flick on to calmly dink the ball over onrushing Town keeper Aaron Howe.

Taaffe then headed a great chance inches wide from close range, before Ben Greenhalgh curled a beauty into the corner from the edge of the box in the 67th minute.

Cawley then claimed his hat-trick for the Beachboys with his second penalty of the match after James White was wrestled to the ground just inside the area.

The Essex-side saved their best goal for last however with just two minutes remaining as Max Cornhill let fly from fully 35 yards and found the top corner to crown a horrible result on the south-east coast.

Bristow would have been looking for a response from his players at Truro, but was left with an all too familiar sinking feeling on the 20-minute mark as Connor Riley-Lowe hit a fine shot to beat Howe from a tight angle.

Sole then forced a strong save from home stopper Martin Rice just before half time as the Dragons looked to claim a much-needed equaliser, before Ryan Brett then headed wide for the home side when well placed seconds later.

But after striker Liam Enver-Marum blazed over a great chance for Town as they had the better of the second period, they were made to pay for not taking their chances two minutes from time as Cody Cooke headed home a simple chance to ensure the visitors left Cornwall with nothing.

Basingstoke are next in action this Saturday when they welcome Maidstone United to The Camrose in the league.

The pressure has intensified on Basingstoke Town manager Jason Bristow after two more defeats for his side in the last week
